

Bronx Center for Scholarship Information @ Bronx Community College

Scholarship Index

A

AAS Mass Media Science & Engineering Fellows Program

<http://www.aas.org/programs/education/MassMedia/program.shtml>

The American Association for the Advancement of Science seeks to increase public understanding of science and technology. Selected Fellows will work for 10 weeks during the summer as reporters, researchers, and production assistants in mass media organizations nationwide. Fellows collaborate with media professionals at radio and television stations, newspaper and magazine. Applicants must be in their senior year or at any graduate level in the fields of the natural, physical, health, computer or social sciences or mathematics. Fellows will receive a weekly stipend of $450 and travel expenses.

Deadline: January 15

ABA Legal Opportunity Scholarship Fund

www.abanet.org/fje

The mission of the Fund is to encourage racial and ethnic minority students to apply to law school and to provide financial assistance to ensure that these students have the opportunity to attend law school for three years. The fund will award $5,000 of financial assistance annually to each scholarship recipient. Law students may receive a total of $15,000 over the three years of law school. For information on other ABA programs for minority and low income candidates for law school go to www.cleoscholars.com.

Deadline: March 1

The ¡ADELANTE! Fund

http://www.adelantefund.org/adelante/Scholarships1_EN.asp?SnID=933522207

The ¡Adelante! Fund is a national non-profit based in San Antonio, Texas. The organization uses a holistic approach to prepare college students for leadership roles upon entry into the workforce.

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. – Educational Advancement Foundation

<http://www.akaef.org/programsandinitiatives/>

At the heart of EAF's commitment is the idea that academic excellence comes in many forms. There are three ways in which the Foundation carries out its mission: Academic Scholarships, Fellowships and Community Assistance Awards. In 2008, EAF awarded more than $107,600 in scholarships to 108 students and 19 additional awards totaling almost $128,300 in categories that included Community Assistance Awards and Youth P.A.C. awards.

America Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, AFL-CIO

<http://www.afscme.org/members/852.cfm>

Several scholarship programs are available for AFSCME members and their children. Click on an individual scholarship from the list below to download an application and for information on requirements and deadlines.

The Associated General Contractors (AGC) of America

http://www.agc.org/cs/career_development/foundation/scholarships

The AGC Foundation offers both undergraduate and graduate level scholarships to students enrolled in ABET or ACCE-accredited construction management or construction related engineering programs.

Accounting Majors

www.AccountingMajors.com

Offers a short list of accounting major scholarships.

AFSCME/UNCF Union Scholars Program

(888) 671-7237, <http://www.uncf.org>

For sophomores and juniors who are students of color and who demonstrate an interest in working for social and economic justice through the labor movement. Students must major in ethnic studies, women's studies, American studies, sociology, anthropology, history, political science, psychology or economics. Union Scholars receive a $4000 stipend to participate in a 10-week summer field placement and a scholarship of $5000 for the academic year. Application available online.

Deadline: February 27

Alexander Graham Bell Association for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing

<http://www.agbell.org/DesktopDefault.aspx?p=Awards>

Financial Aid and Scholarship funds are granted to people who meet the specific criteria for each award and may not be used for purposes other than what the award has stipulated. The AG Bell Financial Aid and Scholarship Program offers awards to help with funding. Please review the specific eligibility requirements for each award before applying.

American Academy of Allergy, Asthma and Immunology

http://www.aaaai.org/members/grants_awards/

This section consists of the funding information for research projects related to Allergy & Immunology. The information is intended to illustrate the broad range of awards available, as well as to present their specific objectives, eligibility criteria, and deadlines. Please contact the AAAAI for complete award guidelines. Award information is subject to change, so please check this web page frequently.

The American Architectural Foundation

<http://www.archfoundation.org/aaf/aaf/Programs.Fellowships.htm>

The American Architectural Foundation offers the Minority/Disadvantaged Scholarships in order to encourage diversity and equity in the architectural profession. These scholarships are open to high school seniors and college freshmen who plan to study architecture at a NAAB-accredited program. The scholarship program was established in 1970 by a grant from the Ford Foundation to aid students who would not otherwise have an opportunity to enter a professional degree program. Twenty awards are made per year and may be renewed for two additional years, ideally maintaining 60 students in the program in any given year. Scholarship amounts range between $500 and $2,500 and are determined by evaluation of financial need information provided by the student and the school.

The American Chemical Society

(800) 227-5555 then press 9, 3, 5, <http://www.acs.org/>

This scholarship offers up to $5,000 to cover tuition, fees, books and other educational expenses for minority students in chemistry and science. To qualify for eligibility you must be African American, Hispanic, Latino, American Indian, Alaskan Native, or Native Pacific. The scholarships are awarded on the basis of merit and financial need to college students who are currently freshmen, sophomores or juniors and are committed to the study of chemistry, biochemistry, chemical engineering or a chemically related science.

Deadline: February 15

American Council of the Blind

(800) 424-8666 or (202) 467-5081, <http://www.acb.org/>

Scholarships of $1,000 to $1,500 are awarded annually to legally blind students in undergraduate and graduate studies. (This organization has compiled a list of organizations, which offer scholarships to blind and visually impaired students. Contact organization for their list of scholarships). Applications available in November.

Deadline: Contact organization

American Culinary Federation, Inc.

<http://www.acfchefs.org/AM/Template.cfm?Section=Scholarships&Template=/CM/HTMLDisplay.cfm&ContentID=14352>

The American Academy of Chefs (AAC), the honor society of the American Culinary Federation (ACF), offers educational scholarships to high school students, college students, professional chefs looking to further their education or become certified and student culinary teams currently competing at ACF Regional and National conferences.

The American Dental Hygienists Association

<http://www.adha.org/institute/Scholarship/index.htm>

The primary focus of the program is to provide financial assistance to dental hygiene students and dental hygienists who can demonstrate a commitment to further the discipline of dental hygiene through academic achievement, professional excellence, and a desire to improve the public's overall health. The applications are available October 1 of each year; the deadline for Institute Scholarship applications is February 1.

American Dietetic Association Foundation

(800) 877-1600 x5400, email: education@eatright.org, <http://www.adaf.org>

The American Dietetic Association offers a variety of scholarships to individuals pursuing undergraduate and graduate degrees in dietetics or food and nutrition related areas. While all students are eligible for most ADAF scholarships, there are specific scholarships available to members of underrepresented groups. Ranges of awards: $500-5,000.

Deadline: February 15

American Geological Institute: AGI Minority Geoscience Scholarships

(703) 379-2480, <http://www.agiweb.org/>

Deadline: Contact organization

Scholarship assistance is available to Geoscience majors with good academic records and currently enrolled in an accredited institution as either an undergraduate or graduate student. The term "geoscience" is used broadly to include studies in the fields of geology, geophysics, geochemistry, hydrology, and planetary geology. Those eligible must be U.S. citizens and members of the following ethnic groups: African Americans, Native Americans, and Hispanics.

Deadline: February 1

American Hotel & Lodging Education Foundation

<http://www.ahlef.org/content.aspx?id=19468>

At the Foundation, we not only help pay for school – we help build your career. Scholarship recipients are invited to join our Scholars Alumni Association, a community that helps you network, advance, and gain visibility in the industry. Recipients also gain a free student membership with the American Hotel & Lodging Association, which puts you at the center of the industry, with all the info, events, and contacts you need to build a fast-track career in hospitality.

The American Institute of Certified Public Accountants/Accountemps Student Scholarships

(212) 596-6224, <http://www.aicpa.org/>

For undergraduate and graduate students who are U.S. citizens. Undergraduates must be full-time declared accounting majors with overall and accounting GPA of at least 3.0. (Awards are granted primarily based on academic achievement; financial need is evaluated as a secondary criterion). Applicant must be an AICPA student affiliate member.

Deadline: April 1

American Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air-Conditioning Engineers, Inc.

<http://www.ashrae.org/students/page/704>

The American Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air-Conditioning Engineers advances technology to serve humanity and promote a sustainable world. Membership is open to any person associated with the field.

American Society of Mechanical Engineers

<http://www.asme.org/Education/College/FinancialAid/>

Over $100,000 in academic scholarships are awarded annually* to ASME Student Members worldwide. The program is a collaboration between the ASME Center for Education and the ASME Foundation. Applications for each academic year are accepted online each year only from February 1 through March 15.

American Society of Radiologic Technologists

<https://www.asrt.org/content/asrtfoundation/welcome/entrylanding.aspx>

These scholarships are available to outstanding entry-level radiologic sciences students. Our goal is to help make sure that the best students aren't prevented from reaching their dreams because they lack the funding for their education.

American Wholesale Marketers Association

<http://www.awmanet.org/page/education--research/scholarships/scholarships>

In June 1983, The Ray Foley Memorial Youth Education Foundation was created in memory of the late National Candy Wholesalers Association executive vice president, Ray Foley. Each year, through the Distributors Education Foundation, AWMA awards two $5,000 Ray Foley Scholarships to deserving candidates who are involved in or who plan to join the convenience products wholesale distribution industry. These candidates must either work for an AWMA-wholesaler member company or be the spouse, sons or daughters of an employee of an AWMA-wholesaler member company.

American Physical Society

(301) 209-3200, <http://www.aps.org/educ/com>

Deadline: Contact organization

APS Minorities Scholarship Program

<http://www.aps.org/programs/minorities/honors/scholarship/>

For African American, Hispanic American, or Native American U.S. citizens who are majoring or who plan to major in physics. Scholarship award is $2,000 annually and may be renewed once. Applications downloadable as of November.

Deadline: February

American Psychological Association: Minority Fellowship Program

(202) 336-6027, <http://www.apa.org/>

Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents who are members of an ethnic minority group who demonstrate a commitment to careers in psychology related to ethnic minority health. Two distinct funding programs are offered, one to support the training of research scientists and one to support the training of clinicians. Student must be enrolled in a full-time, APA approved academic program leading to a doctoral degree by the time a fellowship is awarded.

Deadline: January 15

American Scandinavian Foundation

(212) 879-9779, <http://www.amscan.org/>

For advanced study and research in the Scandinavian countries. Awards are open to U.S. citizens and permanent residents who have completed their undergraduate degree. Criteria for award selection include, but are not limited to: the significance of the program, the feasibility of completing it and the special merit of pursuing it in Scandinavia. Applications can be made for a grant for short visits ($2,000) or a fellowship ($15,000). Application available on request with a non-refundable $10 fee.

Deadline: November 1

The American Sociological Association

(202) 383-9005, <http://www.asanet.org/>

The ASA announces two competitions for fellowships of doctoral work in sociology for prospective and current graduate students who are citizens or permanent residents. (1) For students interested in Sociology of Mental Health/Illness. (2) For applicants whose research interests and training are outside the Sociology of Mental Health. These fellowships do not stipulate a specific area or focus. (A stipend of $8,800 is provided - arrangements for the payment of tuition will be made with the university or department).

Deadline: December 31

American Woman's Society of Certified Public Accountants

email: AWSCPAScholarship@hotmail.com, <http://www.awscpa.org/>

Eligible candidates must be men or women accounting degree candidates who have completed at least one semester of Intermediate Accounting by January, and who have at least a 3.0 GPA. Award is $1,000.

Deadline: February

Arab Student Aid International

(908) 654-5511

Interest-free loans are available to assist highly qualified Arab students with a minimum GPA of 3.0 who are in need of funds to complete their undergraduate education. The applicant must be a citizen of an Arab nation and should be in the U.S. on an F1 visa. In addition, the student must be proficient in the English language and be able to prove that he/she is financially in need. The student must have completed one full year as a full-time student and make a declaration of intent to return to the Arab world upon graduation.

Deadline: May 1

Association of Latino Professionals in Finance & Accounting (ALPFA) Program

<http://www.alpfa.org/index.cfm?fuseaction=Page.viewPage&pageID=354>

ALPFA's Annual Scholarship Program was developed to encourage students who have demonstrated academic excellence to continue pursuing their professional careers. The scholarships available to students, in the US or Puerto Rico, who are pursuing undergraduate/graduate studies. Over the past four years, ALPFA has awarded students over $587,000 in scholarship money. Please continue to visit ALPFA's website for new and exciting opportunities available to students.

The Astraea Lesbian Foundation for Justice

(212) 529-8021, <http://www.astraea.org/>

The Foundation offers one $1,000 award for a woman undergraduate at CUNY who demonstrates financial need and a high degree of community involvement.

Deadline: October

BThe Beinecke Scholarship Program

<http://www.beineckescholarship.org/>

Beinecke scholars receive $4,000 upon completion of their undergraduate studies, and $30,000 for graduate study in the arts, humanities and social sciences. The nominee must be a junior and should represent superior standards of intellectual ability, scholastic achievement and personal promise, and demonstrate financial need. Applicant must be a U.S. citizen. Information and application available online. The College may nominate one student. Interested applicants must see Myrna Fader, Room 1119 East, email: mfader@hunter.cuny.edu.

Hunter College Deadline: December 18

Belle Zeller Scholarship Trust Fund

<http://www.citytech.cuny.edu/bzmaterials/bz.shtml>

The Belle Zeller Scholarship Trust Fund was established in 1979 by the Professional Staff Congress/CUNY, the instructional staff union of The City University of New York. The scholarship honors the founding president of the PSC, Belle Zeller, Professor Emerita of Political Science at Brooklyn College, where she taught for over 40 years. Many distinguished graduates were her students during her long tenure at Brooklyn College. This scholarship is intended to honor the unique qualities of Belle Zeller: the combination of social commitment and scholarship. The Fund is now an independent non-profit organization.

Harry Bermack Memorial Law School Scholarship

B'nai B'rith District No. 1, (212) 983-5800

This scholarship offers $1,500 to students entering their first year of law school and is awarded on the basis of scholastic achievement and financial need.

Deadline: December 31

B'nai B'rith Youth Organization

<http://www.bbvo.org/>

For college seniors planning to enter a school of social work, or first or second year students already attending an accredited institution. Must major in group work. Those interested in working for Jewish agencies will be given preference. Two-year employment with an agency after graduation is a stipulation of the award. Award is $2,000 to $2,500 per year. Second year grants possible.

Deadline: Contact organization

Ron Brown Scholars

<http://www.ronbrown.org/home.aspx>

Ron Brown Scholars represent an exceptional group of young talented African Americans, who all have a strong dedication to leadership and service.

Business and Professional Women's Clubs of New York State, Inc.: Grace LeGendre Fellowship

(518) 434-3338, <http://www.bpwnys.org/>

For women who are New York State residents and citizens of the U.S. who have a bachelor's degree, are registered full-time in a recognized college or university in New York State, and are within two years of completing graduate studies in an advanced graduate degree program. Must show need for financial assistance. Several fellowships of $1,000 awarded annually at B&PW convention in June.

Deadline: Contact organization

Business and Professional Women's Foundation Educational Programs Scholarships

(202) 293-1200, <http://www.bpwusa.org/>

Career Advancement Scholarship

To assist women seeking the education necessary for entry or reentry into the work force or advancement within a career field. Scholarships ranging from $750 to $1,000 are awarded for full-time or part-time programs in the fields of computer science, teacher education, paralegal studies, engineering or science. The scholarship program covers undergraduate and graduate study (except at the doctoral level) for women demonstrating a critical need for financial assistance. To be eligible, the applicant must be a U.S. citizen 30 years of age or older and graduating within 12 to 24 months from September 1.

Deadline: April 15

Avon Products Foundation Scholarship Program for Women in Business

Requirements as above except that a woman may be 25 years of age or older and be studying in a business-related field such as accounting.

Deadline: Contact organization

New York Life Foundation Scholarship Program for Women in the Health Professions

As above except that a woman may be 25 years of age or older and be studying in one of the health care fields.
Deadline: Contact organization

C

Carnegie Endowment Junior Fellows Program

(202) 483-7600, email: info@ceip.org, <http://www.ceip.org/>

The program seeks exceptional students who desire careers in international affairs. The ten students who are selected would work in Washington, D.C. for one year where they would provide research assistance to Associates working on the Endowment's research projects. The college may nominate two students. Interested students should contact the college's faculty representative, Prof. Cynthia Roberts, email: croberts@hunter.cuny.edu.

Deadline: December

Center for Women in Government: Fellowship on Women and Public Policy

(518) 442-3900, <http://www.cwig.albany.edu/>

Designed to develop specialists in policy issues of concern to women through academic study and to provide an internship in state legislative or agency planning office. Ten fellowships will be awarded each year with a stipend of $9,000 for the period January-July. Program will combine 12 credits of graduate work experience in related fields. Candidates must have demonstrated interest in research, programmatic, or political activities designed to improve the status of women.

Deadline: May

Renate W. Chasman Scholarship for Women

email: lsmart@bnl.gov, <http://www.bnl.gov/>

For re-entry women pursuing formal education in the natural sciences or mathematics, entering the junior or senior years or first year of graduate study. Must be U.S. citizen or permanent resident. Award of $2,000.

Deadline: April 1

Coca Cola Two-Year Scholarships

<https://www.coca-colascholars.org/cokeWeb/index.jsp>

The Coca-Cola Scholars Foundation supports over 1,400 college students each year, with annual scholarships of $3.4 million through two nationally recognized programs on behalf of the Coca-Cola System.

Comité Noviembre

c/o Institute for the Puerto Rican/Hispanic Elderly, 105 East 22nd Street, New York, New York 10010, (212) 677-4181. www.comitenoviembre.org

Established in 1987, Comité Noviembre's mission is to commemorate and acknowledge all aspects of Puerto Rican life from the social and cultural to the educational, economic and political. The charge of Comité Noviembre is to create an awareness of the rich culture, language and heritage of the Puerto Rican community and to acknowledge its numerous contributions to this state and nation.

Congressional Hispanic Caucus Institute, Inc.

(800) 392-3532, <http://www.chci.org/>

This scholarship awards Latino students who have demonstrated strong commitment towards public service and exercising leadership in their community, and who plan to continue contributing in the future. This Web site is an excellent resource of opportunities for Latino students. Scholarships of $5,000 for undergraduate or graduate study.

Deadline: April 1

Consortium for Graduate Study in Management Fellowships

(314) 877-5500, <http://www.cgsm.org/>

The Consortium awards full-tuition, merit-based fellowships for MBA degrees to African Americans, Hispanic Americans and Native Americans who are U.S. citizens, and US citizens of other races and ethnicities who demonstrate a commitment to promote inclusion in American business. Member Schools: University of California (Berkeley), Indiana University (Bloomington), University of Michigan (Ann Arbor), New York University, University of North Carolina (Chapel Hill), University of Texas (Austin), University of Virginia, Washington University in St. Louis, and University of Wisconsin (Madison).

Deadline: January

Coro Fellows Program in Public Affairs

www.coro.org

This nine-month full time graduate-level program offers an opportunity for personal and professional growth for those who want to make a difference in their community, organization or industry and who have an interest in civic affairs. Coro helps develop marketable skills for effective leadership. Evidence of leadership potential and concern for the well being of communities are some of the eligibility criteria. Sixty-four Coro Fellows are selected after a rigorous national selection process. Each Fellow works in a series of assignments with a government agency, business, political campaign, labor union media organization and non-profit group.

Deadline: January

Council of Citizens with Low Vision International

<http://www.cclvi.org/scholars.htm>

CCLVI is an advocacy membership organization the purposes of which are to establish the right of persons with low vision to make full use of their vision through all available aids, services and technology; to provide a mechanism through which low vision people can express their individual needs, interests and preferences; to educate the general public, professionals, and low vision people themselves as to the potentialities, capabilities, and needs of low vision people; to establish outreach programs to insure that all individuals with low vision have access to necessary services; to promote research to prevent blindness, improve maximum utilization of sight, and improve environmental conditions and access for low vision people; to support the development of and expansion of pre-service and in-service training programs to improve the quality and quantity of medical and rehabilitative low vision services.

CUNY CAP

The City University of New York, Office of Student Services, Suite 1175 A, 101 West 31st Street, New York, NY 10001, (212) 290-5709

For students who are enrolled or will be enrolled as matriculated students in a CUNY graduate program. Student must have received a bachelor's degree from a CUNY college. Students will work from 15-20 hours at a CUNY college, and will receive a salary of $10/hr. and are eligible for a tuition waiver of up to six graduate credits per semester.

CUNY Pipeline Program <http://web.gc.cuny.edu/oeodp/>

The program is a one and one-half year undergraduate program designed to provide educational and financial support for juniors interested in pursuing the Ph.D. with the goal of college teaching and research. Applicants must be US citizens or permanent residents who are graduating by June 2011. Selected students receive stipends totaling $3,250 which covers the costs of graduate school applications, the GRE and the full-time summer workshop. Deadline: February 1. See BCC Scholarship Coordinator for application.

E

Educational Foundation for Women in Accounting

<http://www.efwa.org/scholarships.htm>

The Educational Foundation awards scholarships to women who are pursuing accounting degrees at both the undergraduate and postgraduate levels.

F

Ford Foundation Diversity Fellowships

National Research Council, www7.nationalacademies.org/fordfellowships/

The Ford Foundation seeks to increase the diversity of the nation's college and university faculties. Applicants must be US citizens or nationals who demonstrate superior academic achievement and are committed to a career in teaching and research at the college level and who are enrolled or plan to enroll in a Ph.D. or Sc.D. degree. Each three-year fellowship includes an annual award of approximately $20,000.

Deadline: November 14

Foundation of the National Student Nurses' Association, Inc.

(718) 210-0705, <http://www.nсна.org/foundation/scholarships/undergrad.asp>

All applicants must be students currently enrolled in undergraduate nursing or pre-nursing programs. Selection will be based on academic achievement, financial need, involvement in student nursing organizations, and community activities related to health care. Individual scholarships range from $1,000 to $2,000. Requires $10 application fee.

Deadline: February 1

Fulbright Grants

(212) 984-5330, <http://www.fulbrightonline.org>

Grants are to give U.S. students the opportunity to live and study in a foreign country for one academic year and to increase mutual understanding between the people of the U.S. and the host countries through the exchange of persons, knowledge, and skills. Applicants must hold a bachelor's degree before the beginning date of the grant and must be U.S. citizens. Selection is based on the academic and/or professional record of the applicant, the validity and feasibility of the proposed study plan, the applicant's foreign language preparation, and personal qualifications. Interested students may pick up the Fulbright brochure in May, in the office of the Scholarship Coordinator. An appointment should be made with Yvonne Erazo, (718) 289-5903, Yvonne.erazo@bcc.cuny.edu.

Deadline: September 10

G

The Gates Cambridge Scholars

<http://www.gates.scholarships.cam.ac.uk>

The scholarships are available for graduate study or for a second bachelor's degree at the University of Cambridge in the U.K. It is anticipated that recipients will become leaders in helping to address global problems related to health, equity, technology, and learning. Deadline: Contact organization

Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship Program

www.ije.org/gilman

This program offers a grant for study abroad for U.S. citizen undergraduate students who are receiving federal Pell Grant funding. The Gilman scholarship aims to support students who have been traditionally underrepresented in study abroad. Award: up to $5000.

Deadline: spring semester: September, fall semester: April

Glamour Top 10 College Women Competition

<http://www.glamour.com/contests>, (800) 244-GLAM, email: TTCW@Glamour.com

Recognizes leadership abilities, personal involvement in community and campus affairs, and academic excellence. A 500-word essay describing your most meaningful achievement in your field of study is required. Winners are awarded a $2,000 cash prize and a featured profile in Glamour Magazine. Applicants must be female college students who are full-time juniors.

Deadline: February 10

Barry M. Goldwater Scholarship and Excellence in Education Program

<http://www.act.org/goldwater>

For sophomores and juniors during the current academic year who have excellent academic records and demonstrated interest in and potential for careers in mathematics and natural sciences that contribute significantly to the technological advances of the United States. Applicant must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident. The scholarship covers eligible expenses for tuition, fees, books, and room and board to a maximum of $7,500 per academic year. Contact Bronx Community College's Goldwater Faculty Representative, Dr. Madeline Bates.

Deadline: January

Government Finance Officers Association

http://www.gfoa.org/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&id=96&Itemid=107

The Government Finance Officers Association's Scholarship Committee will review all applications and make an award if it determines that a candidate has met all of the criteria. For additional information, call Carole Colin at the Government Finance Officers Association (312/977-9700).

John Gyles Education Awards

Attn: The Secretary, P.O. Box 4808, 712 Riverside Drive, Fredericton, New Brunswick, Canada E3B 5G4, (506) 459-7460

Awards are available to students who are Canadian or American citizens. A minimum GPA of 2.7 is required. Criteria other than strictly academic ability and financial need are considered in the selection process. To receive an application, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the above address. Award: up to $3,000.

Deadlines: April 1, June 1, and November 15

HHACU Scholarship Programs

(210) 692-3805, ext 3248, fax: (210) 692-0823, email: members@hacu.net,

http://www.hacu.net/hacu/Scholarships_EN.asp?SnID=1253011994

For full-time undergraduate or graduate students in any major. Must demonstrate financial need and have a minimum GPA of 3.2. Application and descriptions of other scholarships are available at their Web site.

Deadline: May

Samuel Harrington Award for Public Service

<http://www.nationalgridus.com/huntington.asp>

The Samuel Huntington Public Service Award provides a $10,000 stipend for a graduating college senior to pursue one year of public service anywhere in the world. The award allows recipients to engage in a meaningful public service activity for one year before proceeding on to graduate school or a career.

Deadline: February 15

Health Research Training Program

New York City Department of Health, Health Research Training Program, (212) 676-2188,

<http://www.nyc.gov/health>

An academic year program offering practicums in public health research, laboratory work and administration. Open to all college undergraduates and to graduates, and professional school students of public health, health education, laboratory sciences, medicine, dentistry, environmental engineering, public administration, accounting, law, nursing, public policy, the social sciences and social work. Financial support is offered primarily through college work/study.

Deadline: Contact organization

Hebrew Free Loan Society: Student Loan Program

(212) 687-0188, <http://www.freeloan.org/index.html>

Interest-free loans of up to 50% of annual tuition are made to a student or his or her family. Students must be matriculated as an undergraduate or graduate student. The loans are repayable on a monthly basis over a thirty-month period beginning one month after issuance of loan. Open to students of all ethnic groups.

Deadline: Contact organization

Hellenic Times Scholarship Fund

<http://www.htsfund.org/guidelines.html>

Scholarships are available to undergraduate and graduate students of Greek descent between the ages of 17 to 30. Scholarships awarded on the basis of merit and need.

Deadline: April 1

The Hispanic Engineer National Achievement Awards Conference (HENAAC)

<http://www.henaac.org/scholars/>

HENAAC was established in 1989 as a means of identifying, honoring, and documenting the contributions of outstanding Hispanic American science, engineering, technology and math professionals. Corporations, government agencies, academic institutions, the military, and the business community-at-large have submitted thousands of nominees over the last 19 years for this very prestigious recognition.

Fannie and John Hertz Foundation

<http://www.hertzfndn.org/>

Available to students who will have received a bachelor's degree in the applied physical sciences by the time they propose to commence tenure of fellowship. High previous scholastic performance is expected, including an A grade average during last two years of undergraduate work. Fellows, who must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents, are required to commit themselves fully to making their skills available to common defense in the event of a national emergency. The fellowship offers a $16,000 stipend plus a cost of education allowance.

Deadline: October

HIAS Scholarship Awards Competition

(212) 613-1358, email: scholarship@hias.org, <http://www.hias.org/Scholarships/apply.html>

This competition is open to refugees and asylees who were assisted by the Hebrew Immigrant Aid Society to come to the U.S. Undergraduate and graduate students are eligible to apply for a $1,500 award towards educational expenses. Applicants will be judged in three areas: academic scholarship, financial need and Jewish communal involvement.

Deadline: March 15

Hispanic College Fund, Inc.

(800) 644-4223, <http://www.hispanicfund.org/>

For full-time undergraduate students who are U.S. citizens or permanent residents of Hispanic background. A variety of scholarships are offered. Minimum GPA of 3.0 is required.

Deadline: April 15

Hispanic Scholarship Fund

(877) HSF-INFO, email: scholar1@hsf.net, <http://www.hsf.net>

Scholarships for full-time Hispanic undergraduate and graduate students who are either U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Awards range from $1000 to $2,500.

Deadline: October 15

Howard Hughes Medical Institute Predoctoral Fellowships in Biological Sciences

(202) 334-2872, <http://nationalacademies.org>

Sixty fellowships will be awarded for full-time study toward a PhD or ScD degree in the biological sciences. Stipends of $14,000 and $12,700 annual cost of education allowance will be provided to the fellowship institution on behalf of each fellow. GREs required.

Deadline: early November

Humanity in Action

(212) 828-6874, www.humanityinaction.org

The Foundation provides an exceptional experience for students interested in the study and work of human rights with a specific focus on the protection of minorities. Fellows are selected on the basis of leadership potential, academic achievement, the willingness to work with others, interest in minority issues in Europe and America, and concern for human rights. Students may be undergraduate sophomores, juniors or seniors. International students are eligible to apply.

Deadline: February

The Hundred Year Association of New York College Scholar Award

(212) 922-0791, <http://www.100yearassociation.com/>

This scholarship is for a full-time undergraduate student whose parent is a New York City employee and family income is no more than $87,000. The scholarship is based on academic achievement, college/community service, and S.A.T scores. Applications available in March. Award: Range of $1000 to $6000.

Deadline: May

I

Institute for Recruitment of Teachers

Phillips Academy, (978) 749-4116, email: irt@andover.edu, <http://www.andover.edu/irt>

The goal of this summer program is to help minority students seek advanced degrees for careers in teaching. Students must be African American, Latino/a or Native American and must be seriously considering a career in education at the elementary, high school or university level. IRT offers an intern and associates program open to juniors, seniors and graduates. Students receive a stipend of $1200 for attending the workshops for four weeks in July at the Phillips Academy in Andover, Mass.

Deadline: May 1

J

Jack Kent Cooke Undergraduate Scholarship Transfer Program

<http://www.jkcf.org/scholarships>

The Jack Kent Cooke Foundation's Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship Program honors excellence by supporting outstanding community college students with financial need as they transfer to and complete their bachelor's degrees at the nation's top four-year colleges and universities. The Foundation selects up to 50 community college transfer students each year and awards each scholar up to $30,000 annually.

Jackie Robinson Foundation Scholarship

<http://www.jackierobinson.org/apply/>

Through its Education and Leadership Development Program, the Jackie Robinson Foundation provides scholarships of up to $7,500 annually to minority high school students showing leadership potential and demonstrating financial need to attend an accredited four-year college or university of their choice.

Jacob K. Javits Fellowship

U.S. Department of Education, (202) 502-7700, email: SFAMail@ncs.ed.gov, <http://www.ed.gov/programs/iegpsjavits/index.html>

Provides a stipend of up to $15,000, plus an institutional payment of approximately $10,000 to assist students of 1) superior academic ability and achievement; 2) exceptional promise; and 3) financial need, in the pursuit of graduate programs leading to the doctorate in selected fields in the arts, humanities and social sciences or to a master's degree where it is the terminal highest degree in the selected field of study. Applicants must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents and must have completed no more than 30 graduate credits. Applicant must have GRE score at application deadline. Deadline: October 3

The James Beard Foundation

http://www.jamesbeard.org/index.php?q=james_beard_scholarships

The James Beard Foundation Scholarship program helps aspiring culinary students realize their dreams by supporting them on a path to success in the rewarding world of the hospitality industry. Our Scholarship Program is one of our educational pillars, essential to the fulfillment of our mission to celebrate, preserve, and nurture America's culinary heritage and diversity in order to elevate the appreciation of our culinary excellence.

Jewish Community Center Association

(212) 532-4949, <http://www.jcca.org/>

Designed to aid students who are concentrating their studies in the area leading to professional careers in Jewish community centers or YM & YWHAs. The scholarships are open to those who plan to pursue professional education as graduate students in social work (group work), cultural arts, adult education and early childhood education, health and physical education, and for degrees offered by schools of Jewish communal service.

Deadline: February 1

Jewish Foundation for Education of Women

(212) 288-3931, <http://www.jfew.org/jfew.programs.partner.programs.php>

The Jewish Foundation for Education of Women provides scholarship aid both directly and through partner programs with schools and other organizations serving young people. Application available at website after March 15. Deadline: Contact organization

Josephine de Karman Fellowship Trust

(909) 592-0607, <http://www.dekarman.org/>

For international students only. Students in any discipline entering senior undergraduate year will be considered, however special consideration will be given to applicants in the humanities who have manifested exceptional ability and serious purpose. Approximately ten awards will be made.

Deadline: January 31

KKaplan Leadership Foundation Scholarship

<http://www.kaplanedfoundation.org/>

The Kaplan Leadership Program offers financial assistance, individualized support and professional development that helps you expand your options and take control of your future. Benefits may include: Individualized advising and preparation for the transfer process to a bachelor's degree program; financial assistance including scholarships for associate's degrees (up to $3,000 per year) and bachelor's degrees (up to $30,000 per year), and additional funding to assist with living expenses; leadership development and training; mentoring by industry leaders and other professionals; career counseling, job placement support, and admissions guidance for graduate and professional programs; cultural enrichment opportunities.

Kennedy Fellows Program

(212) 794-5486, <http://www.jfkjrinstute.cuny.edu/>

Worker/students enrolled at CUNY in academic program related to the disability field are eligible to apply. Kennedy Fellows receive a $500 award each semester for up to two years and participate in a career development mentoring program. To be eligible students must be employees of either public or private not-for-profit agencies serving children or adults with disabilities, and their families. Students must have a minimum of one year of continuous employment, and must be enrolled for a minimum of six credits.

Deadline: March 31

The Charles and Lucille King Family Foundation Scholarship Awards

(212) 682-2913, <http://www.kingfoundation.org/>

The Charles and Lucille King Family Foundation, Inc. offers multi-year tuition scholarships to television and film junior and senior undergraduate students in the annual amount of $2,500. International students are eligible to apply.

Deadline: April 15

Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation College Scholarship Award

<http://www5.komen.org/researchgrants/awardsampscholarships.html>

The Susan G. Komen for the Cure College Scholarship Award Program offers college scholarships of up to $10,000 a year over a four-year period. The program assists young adults in their academic pursuits and is intended to help students who would otherwise find attending college to be a significant financial burden, due to the loss of a parent to breast cancer. Recipients are selected based on scholastic achievement, community service and participation, financial need, and demonstrated leadership potential.

Korean-American Scholarship Foundation

(516) 883-1142, email: wkim@alston.com, www.ksaf.org

The KASF scholarship will be awarded to full time Korean-American undergraduate and graduate students. Selection is based on financial need, merit and achievement.

Deadline: June 30

The Kosciuszko Foundation

(212) 734-2130, <http://www.kosciuszkofoundation.org/>

For full-time junior and senior undergraduate students and graduate students. Eligible students must be U.S. citizens of Polish descent, permanent residents of the U.S., and Americans pursuing a course of Polish subjects. Evidence of interest in Polish-American related issues and activities is considered. The organization also offers scholarships for study in Poland.

Deadline: January 15

LEugene Lang Student-Faculty Research Fellowship

Office of Research Administration, Room 1424 East, (212) 772-4020

The Fellowship will be considered for a team consisting of a currently enrolled Hunter College undergraduate student, who will be enrolled throughout the duration of the project, and a full-time Hunter College faculty member. The maximum award is $5,000, which can be used for start-up costs for research projects, including equipment and travel, manuscript preparation costs and submission fees.

Deadline: March 1

The John Lennon Scholarships

BMI Foundation, (212) 830-2520, <http://www.bmifoundation.org/>

Students may present their original music and lyrics for consideration. Students must be less than 25 years of age as of January 26. Award: First prize-$10,000, Two Second Prizes - $5,000.

Deadline: January 26

Library Scholarships

American Library Association

(800) 545-2433, <http://www.ala.org/>

Organization publishes an annual directory that lists financial assistance for library and information studies offered by state library agencies and state libraries. The scholarship process is open from October 1 to March 1.

Lighthouse International

(212) 821-9200, email: kclark@lighthouse.org

<http://www.lighthouse.org/aboutus/lighthouse-events/scholarships-and-career-awards/>

For legally blind students who are U.S. citizens. The award categories include: Undergraduate Award, Adult Undergraduate Award, Graduate Award and Career-Change Award. The award is $5,000.

Deadline: March 31

M

MCCA Lloyd M. Johnson, Jr. Scholarship

www.mcca.com

For prospective law school students who are US citizens, the program provides 10 scholarships at $10,000 per year for up to three years. Applicants must have an interest in corporate law, must demonstrate community service and leadership qualities, have an interest in diversity and must be financially disadvantaged.

Deadline: June 1

Madam C.J. Walker "On My Own Ground" Scholarship

Ms. Myra Vaughn, Community Directed Ownership, Inc., 175 W. 90th St., #20J, New York, NY, 10024, phone/fax: (212) 595-2595

Award is for young women in their first year of college with at least a 3.0 GPA and whose yearly income is under $45,000. Candidates should exemplify academic, entrepreneurial and civic aspirations. Essay of 250 words should address how the student would build "My Own Factory on My Own Ground." Scholarships of $4000, awarded at $1000 annually for each of four years.

Deadline: February 28

James Madison Fellowship Program

(800) 525-6928, <http://www.jamesmadison.com/>

College seniors and college graduates who intend to become secondary school teachers of American history, American government and social studies are eligible for awards. Applicants must be U.S. citizens who will be attending a university with a master's degree program offering courses or training that emphasizes the origins, principles, and development of the Constitution of the United States and its comparison with the constitutions and histories of other forms of government. (Fellowships do not support study toward doctoral degrees or teaching certificates.) Fellowships carry a maximum stipend of $24,000.

Deadline: March

Makarios Scholarship

(212) 696-4590, <http://www.hri.org/news/misc/jobs/1997/97-02-05.job.html>

Applicants must be Greek Cypriots born in Cyprus, with permanent residence on the Island of Cyprus. Must be currently enrolled as a full-time student.

Deadline: May 30

Marshall Scholarships

British Information Services, (212) 745-0200, <http://www.marshallscholarship.org/>

Forty college graduates who are U.S. citizens are selected annually to study for two years at British universities in a wide range of subjects. A GPA of not less than 3.7 after the freshman year is required. Highly competitive; there are approximately 1,000 applicants for the scholarships. Candidates are advised to begin preparing their applications well in advance of the October deadline.

Patricia M. McNamara Memorial Scholarship

<http://www.patricias-scholarship.org/apply.html>

The Patricia M. McNamara Memorial Scholarship was started by the owners of Ropage Group LLC. It was decided that something had to be done to honor this woman and share her life with students around the world.

Ronald E. McNair Program

Room 1238 East, (212) 772-4824 or 4967

Designed to provide selected college students with preparation for doctoral study. Those eligible to apply are students who have earned 45 credits or more with a minimum GPA of 3.0 and who are low income and first generation college students or members of groups under-represented in graduate education in the United States - African American, Hispanic American, Native American, Alaskan American. Among the services provided are an academic stipend and the opportunity to engage in academic research with a faculty member. Must be U.S. citizen or permanent resident.

Deadline: December 15

MENSA Education and Research Foundation (MERF)

email: AmericanMensa@mensa.org, <http://merf.us.mensa.org>

Awards will be made to undergraduate and graduate students who are U.S. citizens. The MERF awards are based totally on essays written by the applicants. Applicants must live in a participating Mensa local group's area. Information available at their website after September 1.

Deadline: December 31

Merage Institute Fellows Program

Merage Institute for the American Dream, (302) 246-6881, www.meragefoundations.com

Awards are made to immigrant students who are US citizens or permanent residents who are seniors, and reflect a strong desire and capacity to achieve leadership roles in public service, culture and the arts, science and education and business. Selection is based on the clarity of their plans, academic accomplishments, ability to motivate others and sense of civic responsibility and ability to overcome obstacles. The College may nominate three students.

Deadline: October 30

Microsoft Corporation

<https://careers.microsoft.com/careers/en/us/collegescholarship.aspx>

Microsoft is offering four different types of technical scholarships for the 2010-2011 academic year to current undergraduate students: General Scholarships, Women's Scholarships, Minority Scholarships, and Scholarships for Students with Disabilities.

George J. Mitchell Scholarships

U.S. Ireland Alliance, (703) 841-5843, <http://www.us-irelandalliance.org/scholarships.html>

For one-year post-graduate study at institutions of higher learning in Ireland and Northern Ireland. Prospective Scholars must have a demonstrated record of intellectual distinction, leadership, and extra-curricular activities, as well as personal characteristics of honesty, integrity, fairness, and unselfish service to others, which indicate a potential for future leadership and contribution to society. The scholarship will pay for tuition and board as well as a stipend of $11,000.

Deadline: October

Morris K. Udall Scholarship

<http://www.udall.gov/OurPrograms/MKUScholarship/MKUScholarship.aspx>

The Udall Foundation seeks future leaders across a wide spectrum of environmental fields, including policy, engineering, science, education, urban planning and renewal, business, health, justice, and economics. The Foundation also seeks future Native American and Alaska Native leaders in public and community health care, tribal government, and public policy affecting Native American communities, including land and resource management, economic development, and education.

N

NAACP Special Contribution Fund

(410) 358-8900, http://www.naacpalexandria.org/scholarships_all.html

The Agnes Jones Jackson Scholarship

Awarded to undergraduate and graduate students who have been current regular members of the NAACP for at least one year or fully paid life members. Applicants must not have reached the age of 25 by the deadline.

Undergraduate students must possess a GPA of at least 2.5 and graduate students must possess a minimum of 3.0. Award: Undergraduate: $1,500, Graduate: $2,500.

Deadline: Contact organization

The NAACP Wilems Scholarship

Awarded to students who are majoring in chemistry, physics, computer and mathematical sciences. A minimum GPA of 3.0 is required and students must be members of the NAACP. Annual awards for undergraduate is $2,000; graduate students, $3,000. Both are renewable.

Deadline: April 30

NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship

The National Collegiate Athletic Association, <http://www.ncaa.org/about/scholarships.html>

The NCAA awards scholarships each year to students/athletes who have excelled academically and athletically, and are in their last year of intercollegiate athletics competition. The awards of $5,000 each are towards the first year of full-time graduate study. Eligibility includes a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 Student/athlete athletics achievement will be weighted at least equally with the degree of academic performance. Faculty athletics representative according to the following schedule must nominate student: Late September: Football, Late January: Basketball, Late March: Other sports.

Deadline: Contact organization

National Association of Black Accountants

<http://www.nabainc.org/NationalScholarshipProgramDraft/tabid/370/Default.aspx>

Since inception, the National Association of Black Accountants, Inc. (NABA) has provided more than $8 million in scholarship funds to deserving students preparing to enter various business professions. For fiscal year 2009 alone, NABA awarded close to $500,000 and the amount continues to grow annually. Through the generous contributions of individuals, groups, and organizations that share NABA's desire to break through the economic barriers minorities often experience, NABA has offered between 40 - 70 national scholarships annually ranging from $1000 - $10,000. MUST BE AN NABA MEMBER.

National Conference of Puerto Rican Women – NYC Chapter

(718) 597-3210, email: NYCNACOPRW@aol.com

For undergraduate Puerto Rican women who have completed at least 12 credits with a minimum GPA of 3.0 and who have demonstrated service to the community. Request application by email. Award: $1000.

Deadline: August 15

National Federation of the Blind

http://www.nfb.org/nfb/scholarship_program.asp?SnID=52944229

Each year at its national convention in July, the NFB gives a broad array of thirty scholarships to recognize achievement by blind scholars. In addition to a scholarship, each winner will be brought to the National Federation of the Blind Annual Convention in July at Federation expense, providing an excellent opportunity for high level networking with active blind persons in many, many different professions and occupations. The scholarship application deadline is March 31, 5:00 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time.

The National Italian American Foundation

(202) 387-0600, <http://www.niaf.org/>

Scholarships of $5000 will be awarded to U.S. citizens and permanent residents: 1) Italian American students who demonstrate outstanding potential and high academic achievement. 2) Students from any ethnic background majoring/minoring in Italian who demonstrate outstanding potential and high academic achievement. Applications for the scholarships can only be submitted online at www.niaf.org/scholarships.
Deadline: April 30

National Medical Fellowships, Inc.

(212) 714-0933, <http://www.nmf-online.org/>

To assist medical students who are members of minority groups currently under-represented in the medical profession. Applicants must be U.S. citizens who are either African American, Mexican American, mainland Puerto Rican or American Indian. First and second year students pursuing the MD or DO degree at accredited medical schools in the U.S. and Puerto Rico are eligible to apply. Scholarships are need based. Approximately 560 awards ranging from $240 to $4,500.
Deadline: August 30

National Science Foundation: Graduate Research Fellowships

(866) 353-0905, email: nsfgrfp@orau.gov, <http://www.nsfgradfellows.org>

Full-time study leading to a master's or doctoral degree in the mathematical, physical, biological, engineering, and social sciences and in the history and philosophy of science. Not for work leading to degrees in clinical psychology, education, business, history, or social work. Must be students at or near the beginning of graduate study who are citizens, nationals of U.S. or permanent residents. Stipends for all new and continuing fellows will be $30,000 for 12 months tenure, plus a cost-of-education allowance of $10,500 in lieu of tuition costs and assessed fees. Tenable at any non-profit U.S. or foreign institution of higher learning. GREs highly recommended. Approximately 900 fellowships will be awarded.
Deadline: early November

National Security Education Program

Institute of International Education, (800) 618-6737, <http://www.iie.org/insep>

Scholarships to U.S. undergraduate and graduate students for study abroad in world areas critical to national security. Scholarships are available for: 1) Juniors and seniors-awards for an academic term or year to increase their knowledge of and competencies in other languages and cultures; and 2) Freshman and sophomores-awards usually for intensive summer or academic term study abroad programs to foster their interest in international affairs; and 3) Graduate students-enrolled in or admitted to graduate degree programs to develop expertise in the languages and cultures of less commonly studied countries. Interested students should contact Elizabeth Sachs, esachs@hunter.cuny.edu.
Deadline: Contact organization

National Society of Black Engineers

<http://national.nsbe.org/Programs/Scholarships/tabid/84/Default.aspx>

Scholarships, research opportunities, community activities and academic support are among the wide array of resources available to NSBE members through our various programs. By participating in any number of our programs each member of NSBE is ensured an opportunity to reach extraordinary heights in their academic, professional and community endeavors. The value of NSBE Programs depends on your active participation and we encourage you to find ways to get involved TODAY!

National Society of Hispanic MBA

(214) 428-1622, <http://www.nshmba.org/>

Awards of $1,000 to $10,000 are awarded to persons with U.S. citizenship or permanent residency who have Hispanic ethnic parentage and who have been accepted into an MBA graduate program.

Deadline: July 15

National Society of Accountants

(703) 549-6400, <http://www.nsacct.org/foundation.asp?id=578>

For undergraduate accounting majors who have a minimum 3.0 GPA. Scholarships will be awarded primarily for academic attainment, demonstrated leadership ability and financial need. Applications available as of October. Average award is $500 to $1,000.

Deadline: March 10

Native American Education Aid

(518) 474-0537, <http://www.emsc.nysed.gov/rss/natamer/studentaid.html>

Eligible American Indian students can receive grant awards of up to $2000 per year. Must be a resident of New York State and on official tribal roll of a New York State tribe or be the child of an enrolled member of a New York tribe.

Deadline: May 20 for Summer term, July 15 for Fall semester, December 31 for Spring semester

Network of Executive Women in Hospitality, Inc.

<http://www.newh.org/getpage.asp?pageid=425>

The NEWH By-laws state one of the objectives of NEWH is to promote scholarship, education and interest in the Hospitality Industry and related fields. To that end, each chapter is tasked with fundraising to provide scholarship dollars for eligible students wishing to enter the Hospitality Industry.

The New York City Hispanic Chamber of Commerce/Young Hispanic Business Program Scholarship

<http://www.citytech.cuny.edu/files/admissions/scholarships/yhsa.pdf>

The mission of the New York City Hispanic Chamber of Commerce (NYCHCC) is to represent and advocate for Hispanic businesses in New York City in a cohesive manner. [Please visit our web site @ www.nychcc.com.] The NYCHCC is also committed to helping Hispanic students succeed academically and achieve their professional goals. To this end, the NYCHCC has developed the Young Hispanic Business Program that focuses on preparing Hispanic students to develop the necessary skills that can help them to effectively establish themselves as successful businessmen and businesswomen in the future. The Young Hispanic Business Program will provide mentoring, workshops and scholarship awards to those Hispanic students that meet the criteria.

New York City Community Fellowships Program

Open Society Institute, (212) 548-0152, email: communityfellows@soros.org,

<http://www.soros.org/fellow/community.html>

The Program encourages and supports individuals creating innovative public interest projects that address critical social issues. Interested individuals should demonstrate a solid background of working with the proposed community they wish to serve. Among the groups that the Open Society encourages are recent graduates. Award: Eighteen-month stipend of $48,750.

Deadline: April

The New York City Louis Stokes Alliance for Minority Participation (NYC-LSAMP)

<http://www.citytech.cuny.edu/files/admissions/scholarships/nyc-lsam20062007.pdf>

The New York City Louis Stokes Alliance for Minority Participation (NYC-LSAMP) in Science, Mathematics, Engineering and Technology (STEM) is a federally funded research and training program offered in all CUNY institutions. It is sponsored by a grant from the National Science Foundation in collaboration with The City University of New York.

New York City Public Schools: The Scholarship Program & The Loan Forgiveness Program
New York City Public Schools, 65 Court Street, Brooklyn, NY 11201, (718) 935-2449, www.teachnyc.net
The scholarship program will pay for the tuition of applicants intending to pursue studies up to a master's degree in one of the critical shortage areas listed below. The loan forgiveness program will pay portions of student loans for participants who are not current Board of Education employees, if they qualify for positions in the following shortage areas: Bilingual School Psychology, Speech & Hearing Handicapped, Bilingual Guidance Counseling, Bilingual Special Education, Bilingual School Social Work, Occupational Therapist, and Physical Therapist. The operation of these programs is contingent upon the availability of funds.
Deadline: Contact organization

New York City Urban Fellows Program
(212) 669-3695, <http://www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/html/intern.html>
For those seriously considering a career in public service. Applicants must be recent college graduates prepared to participate in the full-time program for one academic year. Fellows receive a stipend of $25,000 to work in a mayoral office or agency.
Deadline: January

New York State Senate
(518) 455-2611, <http://www.senate.state.ny.us>

Legislative Fellows
Open to matriculated graduate students. Approximately 11 positions are available for a minimum of one year, for immersion in the staff work of the legislature in Albany. Student must participate in projects and activities under the direction of the Student Program Office. Fellows receive a stipend of $32,000 for the fellowship year.
Deadline: April

Richard J. Roth Journalism Fellowship
Open to matriculated graduate students or graduating seniors. One person may be chosen for this journalism/governmental public relations fellowship. The person selected will demonstrate an intention to pursue a career in journalism/public relations; however, applicants may come from any graduate academic discipline background. The fellow will participate in the projects and activities assigned by the Student Programs Office, in addition to the usual work of the placement. Fellows receive a stipend of $32,000 for the fellowship year.
Deadline: April

Session Assistants Program
For undergraduate students (freshmen are ineligible) who are both New York State resident citizens and enrolled full-time in accredited collegiate programs in New York State colleges or universities. Session Assistants will have the opportunity to observe policy development in the New York State Senate. Positions are available January through May. Session Assistants receive a stipend of $4140 and may arrange for academic credit.
Deadline: October

Richard A. Weibe Public Service Fellowship
For matriculated graduate students. One person may be chosen for this position to be served in the presence of program leadership experts, probably in the Senate Majority Program Office. The person will demonstrate scope and depth to engage profound policy decision-making activities.

Deadline: Contact organization

New York Women in Communications Inc.

(212) 297-2133, <http://www.nywici.org/>

The scholarship is open to female and male students. The applicant must be an undergraduate or graduate student majoring in a communications-related field. Undergraduate and graduate students must have at least a 3.5 GPA in their major. Awards are based on academic excellence, need and involvement in the field of communications. Award is $10,000 and may be renewed up to four years.

Deadline: April 15

The Charlotte W. Newcombe Foundation

Hunter College, Office of Student Services, Room 1119 East, (212) 772-4882 www.newcombefoundation.org

The award is administered by the College and made possible by a private foundation designed to aid women 25 years of age and older complete their undergraduate degrees. Students should have completed a minimum of 60 credits, be enrolled for a minimum of six credits, and have completed at least 24 Hunter credits with a minimum GPA of 3.0 by the end of the spring semester. Students must apply for financial aid by completing the FAFSA. Scholarship applications available in March.

Deadline: May 15

O

Oak Ridge Institute for Science and Education (ORISE)

<http://orise.orau.gov/sep/catalog.htm>

The catalog lists academic fellowships and scholarships, research experiences, sabbaticals, and internships funded by government agencies. These programs are administered by Oak Ridge Associated Universities (ORAU), many through the Oak Ridge Institute for Science and Education (ORISE), a U.S. Department of Energy institute managed by ORAU.

Overseas Research Students Awards Scheme

email: ors_scheme@universitiesuk.ac.uk, <http://www.universitiesuk.ac.uk/ors>

For students who wish to do their graduate studies in the United Kingdom and demonstrate outstanding merit and research potential. Applications are available through the UK academic institution.

Deadline: Contact organization

P

National Association of Paralegal Studies Scholarships

<http://www.paralegals.org/displaycommon.cfm?an=13>

The NFPA annual awards recognize excellence in individual paralegals and paralegal associations; demonstrate to the community the strengths and commitment of professional paralegals; and confirm NFPA's position as The Leader of the Paralegal Profession.

Thomas R. Pickering Foreign Affairs Fellowship (for sophomores)

Thomas R. Pickering Graduate Foreign Affairs Fellowship (for graduating seniors or recent graduates)

<http://www.woodrow.org/fellowships.php>

These fellowships pay tuition, fees and living expenses for its recipients. Applicants should be interested in pursuing a Foreign Service career in the U.S. Department of State. Consideration will be given to qualified applicants who, in addition to outstanding leadership skills and academic achievement, demonstrate financial need. Winners of the graduate fellowship are expected to enroll in a two-year full-time master's degree program. Successful candidates have a service obligation to the Foreign Service.

Deadline: Contact Organization

Police Corps Scholarships

U.S. Department of Justice, (888) 942-6777, email: askopc@ojp.usdoj.gov, <http://www.ojp.usdoj.gov/opclea>
A service obligation program that pays up to $7,500 per year towards a bachelor's or graduate degree. Student must serve for four years as a patrol officer with a designated agency in a participating state. Students must be juniors or seniors to apply.
Deadline: Contact organization

Public Policy & International Fellowship Program <http://www.ppiaprogram.org/>

The Program is designed to prepare college juniors or rising seniors from diverse backgrounds for graduate studies in public and/or international affairs and groom them for professional roles in public service. There is an array of opportunities under the Fellowship which span a period of development from the junior year of college to beyond the completion of a graduate degree. Summer programs are being held at Princeton University, Berkeley, Carnegie Mellon, Maryland and Michigan. Among the benefits of the program is a minimum $5000 towards graduate school and full tuition to attend the PPIA Junior Summer Institute. Princeton University is recruiting Hunter College students to participate in their program.
Deadline: November 1

The Puerto Rican Legal Defense and Education Fund/Bristol Myers Scholarship

(212) 219-3360, <http://www.prldef.org/>
Puerto Rican students accepted into law school may apply for this scholarship. Criteria: academic standing, financial need, letters of recommendation and community involvement. Range of award is $500 to $1,000. (Check with organization for other services offered pre-law students).
Deadline: September

R

Rabbit's Foot Press Creative Writing & Publishing Internship

<http://www.rabbitsfootpress.com/internship>
Current college juniors are invited to apply for a two-month summer internship where they will conceive of, develop and write a book, which will be considered for publication. Interns receive editorial support, an introduction to the publishing industry and a stipend of $2,000/month for two months. One week of the internship will be spent in San Diego, CA, with transportation and lodging paid. For the remainder of the internship interns may work at any location.
Deadline: Early April

The Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Program

<http://www.howard.edu/rjb/rangelprogram.htm>
Patricia Hanigan Scroggs, Program Manager, Email: pscroggs@howard.edu

The Program supports outstanding young people who have an interest in pursuing a career in international affairs and the Foreign Service of the U.S. Department of State. The Program includes two major elements:

- a) Charles B. Rangel International Affairs Graduate Fellowship, a two-year program which assists outstanding students to pursue international affairs graduate studies at a variety of schools in preparation for entrance into the U.S. Foreign Service

Deadline: January 26

b) A six-week Summer Enrichment Program open to undergraduate juniors and seniors interested in exploring an international affairs career
Deadline: February 16

Both programs require a minimum 3.2 grade point average and U.S. citizenship.

Jeannette Rankin Foundation

(706) 208-1211, <http://www.rankinfoundation.org/>

For undergraduate women 35 years of age or older by April 1 of award year. Must have a low income and be a U.S. citizen to be eligible.

Deadline: March 1

Regents Health Care Scholarships in Medicine and Dentistry

The University of the State of New York, The State Education Department, (518) 486-1319,

<http://www.highered.nysed.gov/kiap>

For U.S. citizens or permanent residents who are economically disadvantaged and/or members of minority groups underrepresented in the medical or dental profession. Pending state funding scholarship winners will receive from $1,000 to $10,000 a year for up to four years, and must agree to a service commitment upon completion of all professional training. Recipients must attend an approved school in New York State.

Deadline: May

Regents Professional Opportunity Scholarship Program

New York State Education Department, (518) 486-1319, <http://www.highered.nysed.gov/kiap>

For U.S. citizens or permanent residents who are economically disadvantaged and members of minority groups underrepresented in one of the designated licensed professions: accountancy, chiropractic, law, nursing, occupational therapy, optometry, physical therapy, podiatry, psychology, social work, speech-language pathology, veterinary medicine. Pending state funding scholarship winners will receive from $1,000 to 5,000 annually for up to four years and must agree to a service commitment.

Deadline: May

The Rhodes Scholarship

(703) 821-5960, <http://www.rhodesscholar.org/>

Candidates must be unmarried men and women between the ages of 18-24 and citizens of the U.S. Rhodes scholars have pursued studies in all of the varied fields available at Oxford University. Prospective candidates are judged not only on intellectual excellence, but also on moral character and leadership ability. Appointment is for two years of graduate study at Oxford, with the possibility of renewal for a third year. All educational costs are covered. Candidates are advised to begin preparing their applications well in advance of the October deadline.

Deadline: October

Edward T. Rogowsky Internship Program in Government and Public Affairs

Email: etrinternship@gc.cuny.edu Website: <http://www.geocities.com/etrinternship/html/home.htm>

The program offers a variety of paid internships at the local, state and national level, for students with an interest in public service.

Deadlines vary.

The Roothbert Fund

(212) 870-3116, <http://www.roothbertfund.org>

Scholarships awarded to individuals who are primarily motivated by spiritual values to further their education at either the graduate or undergraduate level, with preference given to those who are considering teaching as their vocation. International students are eligible to apply. Applications available after November 1. Award:

$2000-$3000.

Deadline: February 1

Rotary Foundation Ambassadorial Scholarship

The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International, (847) 866-3000, <http://www.rotary.org/programs>

This organization offers a variety of scholarships for undergraduate and graduate study abroad. The primary purpose of any Rotary Foundation Ambassadorial Scholarship is to further international understanding and friendly relations among people of different countries. Academic-year, and Multi-year Ambassadorial Scholarships are offered as well as a Cultural Ambassadorial Scholarship, which offers a three or six month period for language study. The availability and kinds of Rotary Foundation Ambassadorial Scholarships are determined by each district and vary from year to year. Applicants must contact their local Rotary clubs to inquire if and what kind of scholarships are available and determine local application deadlines, which may be as early as March or as late as July 15.

Deadline: Contact organization

S

Salk Scholarships

Preprofessional Office, Room 812 East, (212) 722-5244

Salk Scholarships are awarded to undergraduates and graduates of CUNY who have received an acceptance for admission to medical school. Eight awards of $4,000 and eight honorary awards are made on the basis of high ability and scholarship, sound character, interest in research, and recommendation of the Premedical Committee. Applicants to medical school who have completed research papers or are currently doing research should contact the Premedical Office.

Deadline: March

The Sallie Mae Fund

<http://www.thesalliemae fund.org/smfnew/sections/apply.html>

Addressing financial need through scholarships is one of the key elements of The Sallie Mae Fund's efforts. Since 2001, The Sallie Mae Fund has awarded $14.3 million in scholarships to help more than 5,700 students enroll in college.

J.W. Saxe Memorial Prize

<http://www.jwsaxefund.org/>

To assist undergraduate or graduate students working toward a career in public service. The award is to enable the student to gain practical experience in public service by taking a no-pay job or internship during a summer or other term. Preference will be given to those applicants who have already found such a position but who require additional funds. Applicants should send a resume together with a statement of short and long-term goals. Include or have sent separately, statements from three references as well as a supporting letter from a faculty member. Award: $750.

Deadline: March 31

The Leopold Schepp Foundation

(212) 986-3078, www.scheppfoundation.org

Awards are available for full-time undergraduate and graduate study. An applicant must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident. Awards are granted after a thorough investigation of credentials and an interview. Primary considerations are character, academic ability, and financial need. Interested students should write to the organization stating education to date, year in school, length of course of study, age, citizenship status, vocational goal, and financial need. Age limitation for undergraduate study is 30 years of age; for graduate study, 40 years. Requests may be made from June 1 through November 15 for the following academic year. Enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope. Early applications encouraged.

Deadline: Contact organization

Scholarship and Welfare Fund of the Hunter College Alumni Association

Office of the Dean of Students, Room 1103 East, (212) 772-4877

Senior Scholarship for Graduate Study

Seniors graduating in January, June or September of current year and who have earned a 3.5 GPA during the last 36 credits may apply for funds to attend any graduate school. Please click here to download the Graduate Scholarship Application (PDF). PLEASE NOTE: You must have Adobe Reader to open this file, which can be downloaded at: <http://www.adobe.com/products/acrobat/readstep2.html>. Students must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents.

Deadline: March 3

Sertoma International and the Sertoma Foundation

<http://www.sertoma.org/Scholarships>

SERTOMA. A curious word until three very important words come together in unison: SERvice TO MAnkind. Sertoma's primary service project is assisting the more than 50 million people with hearing health issues. Sertoma also sponsors community projects to promote freedom and democracy. to assist youth and to benefit a variety of other local community needs, as identified by the individual clubs.

William E. Simon Fellowship for Noble Purpose

Intercollegiate Studies Institute, email: simon@isi.org. <http://www.isi.org>

For graduating seniors who have demonstrated passion, dedication, a high capacity for self-direction and originality in pursuit of a goal that will strengthen civil society. Nominees for the prize will also be evaluated on the basis of their academic record and extracurricular activities. Students may use their award in various ways: engage directly in civic life of their community; help to create opportunity for others; advance their expertise; further the ultimate realization of their noble purpose.

Three awards will be granted: one award of $40,000; two awards of $5000 each.

Deadline: February 1

Society of Exploration Geophysicists Foundation

(918) 497-5330, <http://www.seg.org/>

For undergraduate or graduate students who intend to pursue a career in geophysics or related career approved by the society (operations, teaching, research). Applicants must have above average grades and aptitudes for physics, mathematics and geology. Eighty awards annually from $500 to $3,000 per academic year.

Deadline: March 1

Society of Women Engineers

http://societyofwomenengineers.swe.org/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&id=222&Itemid=229

The SWE Scholarship Program provides financial assistance to women admitted to accredited baccalaureate or graduate programs, in preparation for careers in engineering, engineering technology and computer science. In fiscal year 2008, SWE disbursed more than 130 new and renewed scholarships valued at more than $400,000.

The Paul and Daisy Soros Fellowships for New Americans

<http://www.pdsoros.org/>

Thirty fellowships of $20,000 for maintenance and half tuition will be awarded annually for study at any graduate or professional school. Applicants must be "New Americans," which includes Green Card Holders, naturalized citizens and children of parents where both parents are naturalized citizens. Eligible candidates are graduate school students, college seniors or bachelor's degree recipients between the ages of 20 and 28. Highly competitive. A successful candidate needs at least two of the following criteria: creativity, originality and initiative; commitment to and capacity for accomplishment; commitment to the values expressed in the Bill of Rights and the U.S. Constitution.

Deadline: November 1

Special Libraries Association Scholarship Program

(202) 234-4700

A number of scholarships, ranging from $1,000 to $6,000, will be granted for graduate study leading to master's degree at a recognized school of library or information science in the U.S. or Canada. Preference will be given to those applicants interested in pursuing a career in special librarianship. Applicants must be college graduates or college seniors with an interest in special librarianship, must demonstrate financial need, and have a good academic record. Open to citizens of the U.S. and Canada.

Deadline: October 27

Louis Stokes Alliance for Minority Participation (LSAMP)

Hunter College Physical Sciences Learning Center, Room 1209 North, (212) 650-3707

<http://www.nyc-amp.cuny.edu>

LSAMP is a federally funded program for full-time students who are U.S. citizens or permanent residents who are Black, Hispanic, American Indian, Alaskan Native or Native American, studying science, engineering and mathematics. A variety of research experiences and scholarships are available to students at varying stages of their academic career.

Deadline: Contact organization

STOCS Grant

International Programs/Office of Academic Affairs, The City University of New York, (212) 794-5666 or 5441

The Study/Travel Opportunities for CUNY Students (STOCS) grants assist students participating in short-term (summer and intersession) CUNY study abroad programs by awarding scholarships ranging from $500 to $1500. Students must be undergraduate students who are U.S. citizens or permanent residents with a household income of no more than $65,000 and must file a FAFSA. (www.fafsa.ed.gov)

Deadline: Contact organization

T

Terry O'Banion Student Technology Award-Microsoft Student Developer Award

<http://www.league.org/league/competitions/tob.cfm>

Each year, Microsoft and the League for Innovation invite you to nominate two outstanding community college technology students for the Terry O'Banion Student Technology Awards. The winners of these awards are determined through an international search of nominations from League for Innovation Member Institutions. The awards—each in the amount of $5,000, plus copies of Microsoft software programs—are presented to two students with special talent and interest in a career in technology who also demonstrate a need for financial assistance in meeting their career goals. Award winners are designated as Microsoft Student Technology Champion and Student Developer Champion. The Student Developer Champion award is presented to a student with a career focus of software development.

Trinidad & Tobago Alliance, Inc.

P.O. Box 588, Flatbush Station, Brooklyn, NY 11226

For students who were born or whose parents were born in Trinidad or Tobago. In addition to the completed application, students will need to send letters of recommendation, high school and college transcripts, SAT scores and a statement of interests.

Deadline: October 31

Harry S. Truman Scholarship Foundation

(202) 395-4831, <http://www.truman.gov/>

The college nominates students for Truman Scholarships. To be eligible, a student must be a U.S. citizen who is a junior pursuing a bachelor's degree on a full-time basis who: has an extensive record of public and community service, is committed to a career in government or elsewhere in the public sector, wishes to influence public policy, has outstanding leadership potential, and possesses intellectual strength and analytical abilities. Each scholarship covers eligible expenses of tuition, fees, books, and room and board, to a maximum of $30,000. The application will include an analysis of a public policy issue written by the nominee.

Deadline: late November

Tylenol Scholarships

(800) 537-4180, <http://scholarship.tylenol.com>

Awards will be made to undergraduate and graduate students who have demonstrated leadership in community or school activities and intend to major or are majoring in a health-related field. International students are eligible to apply. Awards: $1000 - $10,000

Deadline: April 30

U

The Morris K. Udall Scholarship and Excellence in National Environmental Policy

(520) 670-5529, <http://www.udall.gov/>

The awards will be made to two groups of students: Sophomores or juniors who have outstanding potential and who study the environment and related fields, and Native American and Alaska Native students who are sophomores or juniors, have outstanding potential and are in fields related to health care or tribal public policy. Applicants must be US citizens or permanent residents. Award: Up to $5000.

Deadline: February 2

The UJA-Federation Rose Biller Scholarship

Hebrew Free Loan Society /Rose Biller/JFEW

(212) 687-0188, <http://www.hfls.org>

Provides financial assistance of up to $5,000 to undergraduate and graduate men and women Jewish students demonstrating significant need. A Financial Aid Assessment form, available at the website, must be submitted to the Financial Aid Office well in advance of the June deadline.

Deadline: June

UNCF

<http://www.uncf.org/forstudents/scholarship.asp>

The Program Services Department administers various scholarship programs. Each program has its own eligibility criteria, open/close dates and required documents. In order to apply for a UNCF Program Services Scholarship, you must apply through the online application process. If you are a student attending a UNCF member college or university, it is highly recommended that you also complete the UNCF GENERAL SCHOLARSHIP application. This application process nominates a UNCF student searching for scholarship assistance. Once a student completes the application, the information will be used to match you to many of the specific programs administered by UNCF. The General application, however, does not apply to scholarship programs that require a separate application.

Uncommon Legacy Scholarships

(212) 366-6507, <http://www.lgbtgiving.org/foundations/legacv.htm>

Awards of $1,000 for undergraduate or graduate lesbian students who have demonstrated service to the lesbian/gay community.

Deadline: May 1